THE following Addreſs having been tranſmitted, by the Lords Juſtices of Ireland, to his Grace the Duke of Newcaſtle one of His Majeſty's Principal Secretaries of State, has by him been preſented to His Majeſty. Which Addreſs His Majeſty was pleaſed to receive very graciouſly.

Moſt Gracious Sovereign,

AS the Loſs of your Royal Father our late gracious Sovereign, of ever bleſſed Memory, muſt fill the Hearts of all your loyal Subjects with the deepeſt Concern and Sorrow; the Bleſſing beſtowed upon us by your Majeſty's peaceable and happy Acceſſion to the Throne of your Anceſtors, not only alleviates that Sorrow, but fills our Hearts with inexpreſſible Joy.

Your early Declaration of purſuing the Steps of your Royal Father, and fulfilling ſuch Engagements as he had entered into to ſecure the Trade and Tranquility of the Britiſh Empire; your Choice of a wiſe and able Miniſtry; leave us no Doubt but that thoſe of this Nation will receive an equal Benefit with the reſt of your Majeſty's Subjects, both in their civil and religious Rights.

Give us Leave to aſſure your Majeſty, that as we in this Kingdom have on all Occaſions diſtinguiſhed ourſelves in our Zeal for the Succeſſion in your illuſtrious Family, and are ſenſible it muſt be our own Fault if we are not the happieſt People under ſo gracious a Sovereign, bleſſed with a Royal Conſort, the Glory and Ornament of her Sex; we will on all Occaſions readily ſacrifice our Lives and Fortunes to ſupport and defend your Majeſty againſt all your open and ſecret Enemies.

That your Majeſty may long reign over us, and that the Britiſh Throne may never want a Succeſſor from your Royal Line to ſecure to lateſt Times the Felicity of the preſent, ſhall be ever our ſincere and conſtant Prayers.
